REP. BARNES STATEMENT ON INAUGURATION DAY

MADISON – Today, Rep. Mandela Barnes (D-Milwaukee) was sworn in as State Representative for Wisconsin's 11th Assembly District in the 102nd Wisconsin State Legislature. This will be his second term serving his community in the Wisconsin State Assembly.

"It is a tremendous honor and privilege to continue serving the great people of Milwaukee and Glendale in the 11th Assembly District," said Rep. Barnes. "I will continue our fight for a Wisconsin future that invests in the safety of our neighborhoods, health of our children and families, strength of our local public schools, and opportunities for our workers and local small businesses."

This session, Rep. Barnes will serve as the ranking Democrat on the Assembly Committee on Corrections. In addition, he will also serve on the Assembly Committees on Education, Small Business Development, and Jobs & the Economy.

"We know all too well that corrections must be addressed across this entire country, but we need true reform here in Wisconsin now more than ever to ensure our communities are safer and more secure," Rep. Barnes said. "I know we can make a real difference here and work towards bipartisan solutions that are not only the smart things to do, but the right things to do for the security of our neighborhoods and betterment of our state."
